

COLD AND CLOUDY, WITH SLOW TRACK

Attendance Kept Down at the Thunderbolt Track—Whist
Broom Disqualified.

SAVANNAH, GA., January 8.—A cold, cloudy afternoon kept down the attendance at the Thunderbolt track, Miss K. O. B. won the first race handily. The other, except istria, ran badly. Besterling won the second race in the stretch with Polar Star running in fine form. Racquet had little trouble winning his race, although Lucullus showed improvement, and Baby Willie was ridden by Mike. The fourth event, moved fast when called on, and won with something to spare. Lucullus, who had been in the way in this race, but was disqualified for causing a jam at the turn. Attendance 800, track slow. Summary:

First race—purse, for three-year-olds and up, five furlongs—Miss K. O. B. (5 to 1) first, Tolar Star (1 to 2) second, Tlekens (even) third. Time, 1:06.

Second race—purse, for four-year-olds and up, one mile—Besterling (5 to 1) first, Tolar Star (1 to 2) second, Panique (10 to 1) third. Time, 1:51.

Third race—purse, three-year-olds and up, five furlongs—Racquet (4 to 1) first, Lucullus (1 to 2) second, Baby Willie (even) third. Time, 1:05.

Fourth race—purse, for three-year-olds and up, six and a half furlongs—Lucullus (5 to 1) first, Tolar Star (1 to 2) second, Arthur Sullivan (5 to 1) third. Time, 1:28 2-5.

Fifth race—purse, for three-year-olds and up, five furlongs—Baby Willie (5 to 1) first, Tolar Star (1 to 2) second, W. G. Williams (12 to 1) third. Time, 1:13 2-5.

KETCHELL FOR THE STAGE

Stanley Will Start to Accumulate Coin for Big Operations.

DETROIT, MICH., January 8.—In order to accumulate coin for his prospective big operations and to train a profit, Stanley Ketchell will go on the stage. He has signed a fifteen weeks' contract to appear with a burlesque company, and will give three round exhibition boxing stunts twice daily. Willis Britt will look after the business end of Stanley's stage career. The stage engagement will prevent his appearing in the ring again, except for his exhibition with Tony Capone January 15th, until winter's end. The spring, he has wired his fight manager, Joe O'Connor, instructing O'Connor not to book any more fights for him for four months. Stanley is already booked to meet Hugo Kelly in a 25-round go some time late in the spring. The negotiations for the fight with Johnson will not be called off, however.

Boxing in Chicago.
CHICAGO, ILL., January 8.—Boxing is to have a temporary lease of life in Chicago, but Mayor Hussey, who has issued a permit for an entertainment, said that it day would be brief. Two exhibitions will be given January 20th by the Seventh Regiment, and "hard hitting" will not be allowed. "Cyclone" Johnny Thompson and Tommy Mowatt will probably take part. This permit does not mean that the lid has been taken off boxing," says the Mayor. "I have just made an exception in this case."

"JEFF" WILL LOOK BEFORE HE KEEPS

Will-Not Tackle Johnson Unless
He Is Certain He Is in Shape.

NEW YORK, January 8.—Jim Jeffries will not declare that he is willing to fight Jack Johnson until he has found in just what kind of physical trim it is possible for him to get after a steady bout of the next few months. These words were spoken to-day by a man who was once closely identified with the management of Jeffries, and who knows him like a book.

Jeffries would be foolish to agree to a match with Johnson now, this man continued, "for he does not know whether he can regain his old form or not. But just as soon as Jeff feels that he can show his old speed and skill, you can bet that he will come out to fight Johnson and to defend the heavyweight championship against Johnson or anybody else."

Jeff knows the value of money, and he also knows that it is not to those $50,000 bonuses he can make a new fortune by giving boxing exhibitions on the road. He will begin a tour of the country in the near future, under the management of Billy Delaney, his old trainer, and will have Al Kaufmann as a sporting partner.

WORD FROM "JEFF"

Would Not Think of Re-entering the Ring at Present Time.

DENVER, COLO., January 8.—The following telegram was received to-day by the sporting editor of the Denver Times from James J. Jeffries in response to a message asking the former champion under what conditions he would re-enter the ring to fight Jack Johnson for the championship: "Would not think of re-entering the ring at present under any conditions."

For the present, at least, this apparently disposes of the reported offer of $100,000 made by a number of promoters, men for a fight between Jeffries and Johnson for the championship.

LEOPARDS WIN OVER HYENAS

With a good lead from the first three innings, the Leopards managed to win out over the Hyenas, at the Young Men's Christian Association gymnasium last night. In the indoor baseball league, the final score being 8 to 7. The Hyenas had their chance in the fourth period when four men were sent to the plate, and in which they took a decided break, holding their opponents to a blank score for the rest of the game, and finding Gilliam for an extra run in the last inning.

The winners by making good in the early part of the game, saved themselves from a probable trouncing, as the Hyenas came to the front with a rush and finished in good form.

Hyenas—Henderson, first base; Michaels, right short; Bell, second base; Falkes, left short; Sadler, third base; Sutton (captain), pitcher; B. Lewis, catcher.

The standing of the teams for the past week is as follows:

Leopards 5 7.00
Cubs 4 5.50
Tigers 4 4.44
Hyenas 3 3.00

The Leopards and Kickapoo line up this morning in a basketball game, and the Hyenas and Invincibles will cross bats after the usual drill of the night class.

SMITH MAY FIGHT JOHNSON

White Sox's Pitcher Anxious to Take Part in the Champion.

CHICAGO, ILL., January 8.—Baseball may supply the next challenger for the heavyweight pugilistic championship of the world. The one to issue the duel is none other than Frank Smith, pitcher of the White Sox. Frank came to Chicago from a small town in Illinois, and got backing in his new proposal. It did not take him long to find it. Second baseman of the Sox, Smith announced he would back the Chicago pitcher in a bout with Jack Johnson to the tune of $100,000.

Judge to-day that he was a real man, and not a mere novice at the business. Fredericks said the $100,000 offer was made by Johnson's acceptance. Pitcher Smith is a hustler, and he has the plan to get into a ring battle.

RANDOLPH-MACON PRACTICING

Getting in Shape to Meet William and Mary Team at Ashland, Va., to-Night.

ASHLAND, VA., January 8.—Randolph-Macon reopened for the second day of practice at Ashland, Va., and the basketball team has been returning, and is now practically every one is back and ready.

The basketball squad has been at work all the week, and last night had a practice game in the college gymnasium. The practice game was held this afternoon preparatory to the game of the season, scheduled for Saturday night at Ashland, Va.

Since Randolph-Macon's defeat to the Richmond Y. M. C. A. team exams, the team has been practicing hard, leaving little time for work in athletics, yet considerable improvement is expected over the first game.

GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP

United States Golf Association Holds Next Tournament at Chicago.

NEW YORK, January 8.—Yielding to a threat said to exist among a number of Western golfers, the United States Golf Association laid open to the criticism of being a self-perpetuating body, the United States Golf Association to-night voted the amendment to its constitution so as to permit the placing in the field of independent tickets for the championship.

It was decided to hold the amateur golf championship at Chicago, beginning September 4th.

The rules formulated by the Royal Ancient Golf Club of Scotland, was adopted to govern the game in the United States. Among the vice-presidents elected was Milton Dargatz, Atlanta Athletic Club, of Atlanta, Ga.

Moloney Wins Marathon.
NEW YORK, January 8.—Matthew Moloney, of New York, won the marathon race at Madison Square Garden to-night from thirty-one other competitors in quite handy fashion.

Moloney is a new comer in the running game, and has been in the country for only about three years. He ran himself into prominence the day after Christmas by winning the Hyde Park Marathon in the time of 2:15 in the remarkable time of 2:15:15.

Real Estate.
NEW ORLEANS, LA., January 8.—Fred Beel of Wisconsin, former American champion wrestler, lost two trials at the Orleans Club, New Orleans, to a local champion, Fred Beel of California. In a fairly well-contested match before the Royal Athletic Club to-night, the time was 23 minutes, and 21 minutes, respectively.

Manchester News.

Manchester Bureau, Times-Dispatch,
No. 1102 Hull Street.

Following the meeting of the City Assembly last night, the two branches of the Council met to-day. Following the meeting of the Board of Water Commissioners and the James River Free Bridge Commission, to fill the vacancies caused by the recent resignations of Mr. Ernest Wells and Mr. J. H. Green. Mr. Green was a member of both bodies. There was no opposition to any of the names offered. Mr. C. C. Jones nominated Mr. E. T. Nunnally for one of the vacancies on the Water Commission, and the vote was cast by the president, Mr. J. D. Rudd cast the unanimous ballot for Mr. Nunnally. Following this Mr. Gill presented the name of Mr. R. E. Eastwood for the Water Commission, and the vote was cast by Mr. Campbell. Mr. Rudd then nominated Mr. L. R. Brown as a member of the James River Free Bridge Commission, and the vote was cast by Mr. C. C. Jones.

Assembly Meets.

Previous to the joint meeting, the City Assembly passed on many matters of importance. The budget made up by the School Board for the cost of operation of the public schools was received and referred to the Finance Committee. In the budget is included $500 for a night fire school. It is understood that a majority of the members are in favor of the budget. It is believed that it will be adopted. The School Board hopes to have the night school in operation by the beginning of the next term, which starts shortly after the first of February. A committee on the part of the City Assembly, asking that sewer and water connections be made to his property at Seventh and Porter Streets was read and referred to the Street Committee. Mr. Carrington stated that he had intention to erect a large warehouse on the now vacant spot.

Swansboro Man Arrested.

In destitute circumstances and without friends, Nettie Taylor, a young girl, formerly of Swansboro, applied yesterday to the police for help. She was a native of Swansboro, Va., and was asking that sewer and water connections be made to his property at Seventh and Porter Streets was read and referred to the Street Committee. Mr. Carrington stated that he had intention to erect a large warehouse on the now vacant spot.

At a meeting of the Fire Commissioners Mr. J. W. Hastings was elected a regular member of the fire department to fill the vacancy caused by the death of John H. Brown. Mr. Hastings has been on the substitute list for some time. The board also decided to purchase another horse for the department to be used with the present horse in pulling the fire truck, which is of a heavy make and is a year or so old. A committee has been appointed to make the purchase.

Chief Fisher in the City.
Chief Fisher of the Civil Service at Washington, who is investigating the Treat-Ehrhart matter at the Federal building in Richmond, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Fisher made no announcement as to the result of the investigation in this city.

Personals and Briefs.
Mr. Harvey Sampson is sick and at his home.

At the sale of city property held for delinquent taxes the only purchase made was by Gary L. Foster and W. A. Morrison, both of whom bought a lot on Pinkerton Avenue, formerly owned by Henry Mason.

At Oak Grove Church to-morrow the pastor, Rev. W. A. Morrison, will give the services. His subject in the morning will be "Gilding the Lions of the Mind," and at night he will take as his text, "Water, Milk and Wine."

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Rountree, formerly of this city, who have been spending several days in the city, left yesterday for their home at Maryville, Mo.

The funeral of Leo Chatham, who was killed in the recent Little Water Works on Thursday, took place from the home, No. 1721 Bridge Street, yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

In the city with copies of the State law prohibiting the appearance upon the stage as gymnasts, contortionists and acrobats of children under the age of 16 years, the Deputy said he did not know that the law had been violated, but he simply wanted the theatres to be informed as to its provisions.

ART FOLLOWS FLAG.
Miss Russell Goes to Manila in Spring With Plays for Filipinos.

Miss Annie Russell, who is playing here in "The Sign of the Cross," is leaving for Manila in the spring to take a company of players in the spring to Manila, where she will be engaged for a season.

It is said that no great American actor has ever played in the Philippines before, and in honor of the patronage of the United States government, for she and her company will make the voyage on a United States ship, and the performances in Manila will be sanctioned by the Governor of the Islands.

A feature feature will be the rehearsal of the dozen plays to be presented, which will be held on the ship while crossing the Pacific. Art as well as commerce follows the flag.

ILL-TREATED DOG.
A. F. Harris Is Arrested on Two Charges, One of Which Is Cruelty to Animals.

A. F. Harris (white) was arrested yesterday on a charge of being drunk and disorderly and abusing Police Constable Gentry. He was taken to the station and held for him by Agent E. C. Taylor, of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, who is investigating the case.

It seems that Harris entered the house of a friend, and becoming angered with his host, proceeded to take out his wrath on the canine. The animal, according to the evidence, was horribly treated, and Mr. Taylor got out the warrant as soon as he heard of it.

WILL HEAR DAMAGE SUIT.
ALEXANDRIA, VA., January 8.—The January term of the Circuit Court for this city, Judge L. C. Barley presiding, will convene Monday morning next at 10 o'clock. The first case to be taken up is that of Beyer against the Adams Express Company.

The object of the suit is to recover damages in the sum of $2,500 for the damage to a boat of Washington while in transit. Edmund Burke, of Washington, is the plaintiff, and Messrs. James R. and H. B. Caton will appear for the defendant company.

CROWDS FLOCK TO HERRY'S WINTER SALE.
The methods employed by this popular shop for men and boys inspire confidence. Bright and early upon the morning of the first announcement of the sale, the men began to drop in, and it is confident that the great price reductions advertised would be found bona fide.

The firm studiously and from principle refused to have any kind of a "bustle-up" or groundless sales. They realized that at certain periods and under certain conditions it is not only necessary, but it is a duty to reduce prices and give up stocks. They don't haggle, their cuts are decisive and almost sudden.

The buying public has learned this, and their response to the Herry's announcements is always most gratifying to that firm.

Not only suits and overcoats for men, but also a great variety for boys and girls are to be had at tremendous price reductions, but shirts, hats and gloves as well.

As Herry & Co. would say, "come and see."

Statue Shows Age.
Contractor Waltheusen Handles George Washington Carefully.

Mr. George B. Waltheusen, of New York, who has the contract to erect a statue of Houlston's statue of Washington, is about ready to begin work, having completed the stage and placed the statue in the exact position.

The statue, as a result of its age and being moved about from place to place, shows a number of slight abrasions, but there are none which appear to have been recently made. While the statue is being moved, the exact condition of the monument at present, in order that the contractor may demonstrate, when his work is over, that it has not been injured by him.

Mr. John C. Gaines, a prominent farmer and noted fox-hunter of Charlotte county, is in the city, and is visiting his friend, Captain Frank B. Watkins. "I expect John Gaines and I have caught as many foxes as any two men in Virginia," said Captain Watkins when speaking last night of the presence of his friend in the city.
